FULL STACK SOFTWARE ENGINEER

Profile

Full Stack Software Engineer seeking community and environment of growth and innovation.

Skills

Innovation

Proven track record of bringing a spirit of innovation to new and legacy applications

Customer Obsession

From brainstorming to implementation, the customer is always at the center

Teamwork

As a leader and individual contributor, I rally my team together to perform the best work of our lives

Interests

I am always learning and looking for ways to improve my craft. I have recently discovered functional programming and haven't looked back. Every side project I work on now, whether it is Project Euler challenges, trying new web frameworks, or complex microservice based applications, I incorporate my newly found functional programming principles.
